Wedemeyer Is Witness For His Final Day

Conflicting Reaction Develops Over His Korean War Program

By JAMES LEE
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Lt. Gen. Wedemeyer today began his final round of testimony in the MacArthur dismissal inquiry amid sharply conflicting senatorial reaction to his "play to win or get out" Korean War program.

Democrats attacked Wedemeyer's recommendations as blows against the United Nations and Republicans asserted that the three-star general has offered a "positive" solution of the Far East crisis.

These contrasting reactions echoed as Wedemeyer went back to the witness stand.

"End of UN"

Sen. Green (D—R.I.) said it would mean the "end" of the UN. He declared:

"It would absolutely sacrifice the United Nations. In fact, it would sacrifice all the gains we have made. Imagine the kind of prestige we would have in Asia or anywhere else. It would be terrible."

Sen. Bridges (R—N.H.) said Wedemeyer "called a spade a spade."

He added:

"He is the only one outside of Gen. MacArthur who has laid down a positive program for winning the war in Korea. I agree

Cattle Shipments To Stockyards Are Now On Upswing

CHICAGO, June 13.—(INS)—Cattle shipments to the nation's leading stockyard were on the upswing today but the big meat packers continued to insist that government price rules are preventing them from buying normal quantities.

Major livestock markets yesterday reported the first increase in receipts since June 4 when a 10 per cent price rollback became effective.

The "back to market" movement was greeted by Michael Howlett, regional director of the office of price stabilization, as a sign that the "farmer has made up his mind to give the regulations a chance to work."

Gen. MacArthur Speaks Today At Austin, Tex.

Expect Address To Be Reply To Some Probe Testimony

By ROBERT CONSIDINE
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

AUSTIN, Tex., June 13.—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's first public rebuttal on administration charges and statements concerning his congressional testimony will be delivered today to an expected crowd of more than 50,000 before Texas' state capital.

The general, accompanied by Mrs. MacArthur, young Arthur and his aides, arrives at Austin by commercial airliner at 3:30 p.m. (EPT)—his first official visit to the Lone Star state in better than half a century.

MacArthur attended Texas Military academy a year before entering West Point.

That the deposed Far East commander places great importance on his expected half-hour speech was indicated last night and the night before when he kept the lights burning in his Waldorf Astoria

No Indication Of Early End In Bus Strike

Strike of the bus operators against the Shenango Valley Transportation Company, now in the middle of the second week, showed no developments today that would indicate any early settlement effort.

New Castle, Sharon, Wheatland, Farrell and Sharpsville, are affected by the bus line tieup.

President of the operator's union, Roland J. Fisher is in East Palestine, Ohio, as result of a death.

President Samuel Friedman of the Shenango Valley Transportation Company said no negotiations in the strike had been arranged at the present time.

Gen. Wedemeyer Testifies He Made Grievous Error

By JAMES LEE
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(INS)—Lt. Gen. Wedemeyer testified today that he made a "grievous error" at the time of the Yalta conference in 1945 by recommending that Russia be brought into the Pacific war to speed victory over Japan.

The wartime commander of the China theater told senators probing Gen. MacArthur's dismissal that he advised Gen. Marshall in February, 1945, that the Soviets should be brought into the war because "it was my conviction that the Japanese would hold in."

He said he was "afraid the war would go on for a long time and we would lose a lot of lives, whereas if the Soviet would come in it would precipitate our final victory."

Wedemeyer added:

"I made a grievous error recommending to my chiefs that we should do that, when he asked my advice."

Garment Workers' Strike Appears Near Settlement

NEW YORK, June 13.—(INS)—A garment workers strike affecting four eastern states where 65,000 workers are off the job appeared close to settlement today.

Hope was expressed that an agreement might be reached earlier today or some time tomorrow which would send the workers who walked out yesterday back to their cutting tables and sewing machines.

William Lewis, Jr., USMC, who was killed September 24, 1950 in Korea. The family, previously received the Purple Heart awarded their son for injuries received in battle.

Silver Star Medal from the President of the U. S., was posthumously awarded Marine Corporal William G. Lewis Jr., of R. D. 1, New Wilmington, Tuesday afternoon.

Captain John M. Moore, of the Marine Corps, assistant recruiting officer of the Pittsburgh district, pinned the Silver Star Medal on Mrs. Wm. G. Lewis, mother of the marine, in the Lewis home, before members of the family.

Killed In Sept., 1950

Cpl. Lewis was killed in Korea in September of 1950. A citation from the Secretary of the Navy, Francis P. Matthews read:

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity while serving as a fire team leader in Company F, Second Battalion, Fifth Marines, First Marine Division, in action against an enemy aggressor force in Korea on 24th September 1950.

"Although suffering from hand wound and loss of blood, Cpl. Lewis led his men in determined assault against a well fortified enemy stronghold. Refusing to be evacuated, he skillfully positioned his men in order to deliver the most effective fire upon hostile fortification.

Teen-Agers Use Of Dope Probed

New York Hearing Turns Up Facts On City Dope Racket

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 13.—A hearing board probes deeper today into the increasing use of narcotics by New York teen-agers which the superintendent of schools testified has corrupted one out of every 200 junior and senior high school students.

Recordings of the stories of six teenage youngsters who became narcotics addicts will be heard at the hearing today.

Superintendent of Schools William Jansen, who previously estimated the number of child addicts at 154, said after two and one-half hours of sharp questioning that there were 1500 users of the drugs.

Indicates 5,000 Users

Attorney General Nathaniel Goldstein, who is directing the inquiry, presented evidence indicating a total of 5,000 users of morphine, heroin, cocaine and marijuana among the 300,000 school children.

Dorris Clarke, chief probation officer of the magistrate's court, testified that dope peddlers are giving children "premiums" of free dope if they will induce others to buy it.

The kids have no difficulty in being supplied today. According to youngsters, they can walk on the streets of certain areas and persons will come up and offer narcotics to them. It happens in all areas and all boroughs.

"Dope pushers (peddlers) give kids the first two or three shots free and begin charging them when the habit becomes ingrained. This is a curse now spreading through the city."

Scotland Yard Is Puzzled Over Missing Diplomats

LONDON, June 13.—(INS)—Scotland Yard was said to be puzzled today about how Britain's two missing diplomats are managing financially if they are on the continent and not in the hands of enemy agents.

A close watch is being kept on London banks and clearing houses in an effort to trace any checks which either Donald MacLean, former head of the American department of the foreign office, or Guy Burgess, Russian and Far Eastern expert, might have cashed abroad.

The London Daily Graphic reported that opinion in top-level foreign office circles is veering toward the possibility that the men are in Soviet hands.

The newspaper said that although the Foreign office is receiving constant reports from behind the iron curtain in addition to information from western Europe the nature of the reports is not known.

Atomic Authorities Confer About New Super-Weapons

By DARREL GARWOOD
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The nation's leading atomic authorities hold an elaborate news conference at the Pentagon today to discuss new super-weapons that may revolutionize air, ground and sea warfare.

The afternoon session, billed as a public report on the atomic tests at Eniwetok last month, will take up the hydrogen bomb and atomic warheads for artillery shells, guided missiles and torpedoes.

The meeting was given added significance by Chairman McMahon (D Conn.) of the senate-house atomic energy committee, who said the tests exceeded all official expectations.

Several Years Of Tension Are Ahead For U.S.

PITTSBURGH, June 13.—(INS)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley today told the 1951 graduating class of the University of Pittsburgh that he foresees "several years of international tension" ahead of them.

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff said it would be self-deceit to take as a slogan "peace-is-just-around-the-corner."

He said the American program of military aid to allies had been set back by the Korean conflict, but added the plan "now is ready to go ahead more rapidly" and hinted that more nations may be included in the North Atlantic treaty organization.

"We are drawing upon the best military ideas, and the best in industry and special talents of the different nations, for an improved security for all of us," General Bradley said.

Some Rearguard Resistance In Other Sectors

U.N. Forces Capture Or Destroy Large Amounts Of Red Booty

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, June 13.—Artillery and air-supported Allied troops pushed deep into the heart of North Korea's "Iron Triangle" today in pursuit of fleeing Red forces but in some sectors they failed to make contact with the enemy.

Rearguard resistance still remained stubborn outside of the "Iron Triangle" along the 100-mile front.

The Eighth Army's Wednesday evening communique reported that Allied troops failed to find any enemy defense north of the Yonchon-Chorwon area on the west central front. Chorwon was the southwestern anchor of the enemy's crumbled triangular supply and staging base.

Moderate Resistance

North of Kumhwa on the right leg of the triangle, enemy resistance was described as moderate. Allied forces engaged well-entrenched enemy troops in the sector above Kumhwa.

But northwest of Kumhwa and northeast of Chorwon in the heart of the triangle, only light resistance was encountered.

United Nations forces captured or destroyed large quantities of Communist munitions and equipment as they advanced.

On the western front north of Korangpo, only light contact was reported and the situation was the same on the east flank north of Yangu.

In the center, company-sized enemy groups were fighting a delaying action north-northwest of Hwachon and on the east coast in the Kansong area Allied troops engaged a battalion of enemy soldiers.

Peace Rumors Are Buzzing In Tokyo Today

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
Far Eastern Director.

TOKYO, June 13.—Tokyo buzzed today with the strongest peace rumors since the Korean war began nearly a year ago.

Despite repeated denials, the belief persisted among some officials in the Japanese capital that when defense secretary George C. Marshall visited the Far East last week he brought word from Washington of an impending new peace move.

According to this theory—unsubstantiated by any known facts—the purported new move is expected to have some chance of success.

There were a few straws in the wind pointing to possible fresh steps toward ending the fighting in Korea.

He's looked at folders from mountain resorts, and spots on the eastern coast, he's looked at prices for rooms and board to see what will cost the most. He's poured over road maps both east and west, for his annual two week roam, but confidentially I would say he will wind up right here at home. There are things to do that the wife wants done, painting, repairing and such, and do you think he will waste his time, well brother I'd say not much. For when women have work that has to be done, don't plan on getting away, you'll do the work and forego the fun, it's 67 today.

One week from Thursday, summer will be officially ushered in. It is learned from the almanac. Vacationers are hoping that the weather which kept the wet months will be conducive to vacationing and outdoor camping.

Pa News notes that a number of the unpaved streets about the city still contain the ruts and sinkholes developed during last winter's unusual weather. Streets that have been allied, have been scraped and are in fairly good condition at present.

Apple orchards in some sections of the county will have to be thinned this summer due to such a prolific crop being promised for next fall. Barring unforeseen weather difficulties, orchardists will produce another record crop of apples this year, the third in as many years.

Surface treatment program of the State Highway department was curtailed today due to the wet weather which kept the workmen under cover. Good progress has been made in the work over the past few days with motorists being given better roads on which to travel.

City workmen are engaged in applying center white lines and pedestrian traffic lanes in various sections of the city. Tuesday, the painters were applying the white line to the dangerous curve on East Washington street between Oak and Chestnut streets.

Flags should be displayed at business houses and residences on Thursday in commemoration of flag day. A few business houses will be closed.

with him that to continue indefinitely without plan for decisive victory will only be expending our sons and resources and in the end will play into Soviet hands."

Former Defense Secretary Louis Johnson is slated to follow Wedemeyer as a witness Thursday. The general, World War II China theater commander, leaves later today to fly to California.

What Wedemeyer Said

Wedemeyer testified that: 1. Congress and the American people "without question" should follow the joint chiefs of staff in any disagreement between them and a field commander. He said he has "explicit confidence in their integrity and in their loyalty to country and to principles."

2. He would "accept a truce" if offered by the Chinese Reds in Korea and then try to halt the war. He said he would do this even though he is "not confident" of the Communists' sincerity in negotiations.

3. The U.S. should get out of the "bottomless pit" of Korea. America, he declared, should "play the strategic game to win" or at the right time "take our fine team off the field." Wedemeyer said America can't accept an "interminable delay" before deciding on withdrawal.

4. If the Reds withdraw from Korea there would still be a "dire threat" of their return. He said this would mean keeping a "sizeable police force" in Korea to meet any such threat.

5. Although Congress and the people should rely on the joint chiefs, who may have more information than he, Wedemeyer still thinks his plan for a 1943 cross-channel invasion of Europe would have prevented Russia from overrunning Eastern Europe.

6. The United States should not let the Chinese Communist regime enter the UN and should keep Formosa from the Reds.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) brought out Wedemeyer's statement about the joint chiefs during his unusual two and one-half hour night appearance before the joint Senate committee.

SOME REARGUARD RESISTANCE IN OTHER SECTORS

emy companies and battalions were spotted moving north above Hwachon.

UN airmen, winging far behind the receding battleline, found no evidence of new Chinese attempts to resupply from Manchuria the battered Red troops in Korea.

This, together with other factors, evoked an unprecedented wave of peace rumors among Japanese circles in Tokyo. American officials, however, frowned on these rumors.

Methodically mopping up on screening Red units. Allied columns carved out gains of as much as three miles Tuesday in the west-central sector.

In the mountainous center of the front, however, lesser advances were made in the face of sharp delaying actions by Communists in company to battalion strength.

There the UN troops were storming successive ridges toward the four-way road and rail hub of Kumson.

28 Miles North

That mid-Korean city lies 28 miles north of Parallel 38 and 12 miles northeast of Kumiwa. Allied-held southeast anchor of the enemy's broken supply and staging triangle.

North of Hwachon, the Chinese rained artillery and mortar fire on the Allied troops to slow their advance. East of the Hwachon reservoir, Chinese and North Korean units continued Tuesday to put up tenacious though slightly weakening resistance.

Along the eastern seaboard an enemy battalion, covered by artillery and mortar barrages, unleashed a counterpunch Tuesday that caused UN spearheads to fall back.

This action occurred west-southwest of the Allied-occupied coastal hub of Kansong, 30 miles above Parallel 38.

Much Equipment Taken

Along the shoreline itself other UN troops continued to poke forward cautiously beyond Kansong under cover of naval bombardments by UN cruisers and destroyers.

From the victories they won in hard fighting this spring, the Eighth Army's international forces were reaping a rich material harvest.

Around Chorwon, Allied-captured southwest point of the Chorwon-Kumiwa-Pyongyang Triangle, UN patrols seized two big supply dumps. These contained 1,800 pounds of TNT, 750 anti-tank mines, and 12 to 15 truckloads of artillery and mortar shells and hand grenades.

Near Chipo, southwest of Kumiwa, other Allied troops captured an abandoned Chinese field hospital, complete with huge quantities of medical supplies and equipment.

But the largest haul was taken by a UN force which seized a vast dump east of Kumiwa. This contained at least 4,000 rounds of mortar ammunition and 150mm and 105mm artillery projectiles.

en Russian military men secretly left the Soviet mission in Tokyo on June 7th for Khabarovsk.

This could not be confirmed immediately.

Japanese said that if this report is true, it might be presumed that the Soviet military attaches may have gone to Khabarovsk to engage in talks looking toward a Korean truce.

Khabarovsk is in Siberia near the border of Manchuria through which the Chinese Communist sent their troops and supplies into Korea.

However, American state department and army intelligence officials denied knowledge of the reported departure of the Russian officers from Tokyo.

To Be Blunt Refutation

It is expected to be a blunt refutation, in many respects, to the testimony presented to Congress by administration spokesmen Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State Acheson, Gen. Omar Bradley, Gen. J. Lawton Collins and Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg.

Several changes in the prepared text of MacArthur's remarks were occasioned, it is known, by the testimony of his friend Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer.

It was believed to be significant that MacArthur, who as a five-star general has the right to receive air transportation for life from the Air Force, did not exercise his option. His plane will be a standard Eastern Air Line plane, though Lt. Col. Tony Story, MacArthur's personal pilot, was expected to spend time at the controls.

To Start Celebrations

When it alights at Austin airport it will touch off a chain reaction of celebrations which Texans swear will put to shame, in sound at least, those which welcomed the general back to the U. S. at Hawaii, San Francisco, Washington, New York, Chicago and Milwaukee in April and early May.

There will be an impromptu parade from the Austin airport down Congress avenue to the Commodore Perry hotel, where the MacArthur party will have lunch and freshen up before the general speaks at the capitol at 5 p. m. (EDT).

3. The government experts are unanimous in believing that Russia has an atomic bomb, but that Russia is not equipped to match the U. S. in quantity and variety of atomic weapons.

As a preliminary to the conference, the authorities announced that they cannot release the exact number of explosions at Eniwetok even though they believe this figure is known in Russia.

LUTTON-PETERSON CHARMING CEREMONY

Dignity and solemnity marked the charming wedding ceremony at which Miss Eleanor Anne Lutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Burke Lutton, 609 South Ray street, was united in marriage to Ralph Waldo Peterson, Jr., Burlington, Vt., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson, Sr., of Reading, Mass.

First Pentecostal church, corner of Pearson and Epworth streets, was the setting for the candlelight rite on Saturday, June 9, with Rev. James D. Menzie officiating at the double ring service.

Adding to the impressiveness of the occasion, nuptial selections were presented, with Mrs. Walter Bender, pianist, accompanying the soloist, Rudy Eganich of Besenmer, as he sang, "O Promise Me," "It Was Heaven's Grace That Made Me Thine," and the consecration hymn, "Fully Surrendered."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a sheer bodice, and long, sheer pointed sleeves trimmed with Chantilly lace, a nylon organza overskirt over the satin ended in a graceful court train and featured two rows of Chantilly lace, which were caught up in the front with clusters of lilies of the valley. A fingertip veil of French illusion pearls and cut beads. The bride carried a floral arrangement fashioned of white roses and stephanotis, with a going-away corsage tucked in the center.

The bride's sister, Miss Elaine Lutton, as maid of honor was dressed in blue organza and wore a headpiece of lace trimmed with blue forget-me-nots. Bridesmaids were Miss Esther Player and Mrs. Edward Hartman, one in pink organza and the other in green organza, with headpieces of tulle trimmed with valley lilies. The gowns, designed similarly to the bride's costume, were fashioned with small pointed collars, puffed sleeves, and bouffant hoop skirts with ruffles at the bottom caught up with lilies of the valley and tiny white bells. The attendants wore white nylon gloves and carried arrangements of mixed flowers tied with ribbons to match the gowns.

The flower girl, Judy Palagulo was in yellow organza and carried a basket of mixed flowers. John C. Peterson of Reading, Mass., the groom's brother, served as best man and the ushers were Ray Trower, U. S. Air Force, of Hubbard, O., and Rev. Robert W. Fidler, Turnbridge, Vt.

A reception was held at the Carl Bender residence, Painter Hill, following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson departed for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City, and will take up residence at Burlington, Vt., upon their return.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle high school, class of 1947, and attended the Central Bible Institute, Springfield, Mo. She was employed as an operator for the Bell Telephone company.

The groom attended Boston University, Springfield, Mo., and is a graduate of the Central Bible Institute. He is a minister at the Assemblies of God Chapel, Burlington, Vt.

NEW YORK—Ceramic bowls, ash trays and other objects are becoming an important part of interior decorating this season. And there are more available in the stores than ever before.

MARGARET LONG WEDS B. E. COWDEN

First Congregational church was the scene of a lovely wedding Tuesday evening, June 12, at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Louise Long, daughter of Mrs. Harry M. Long, 1107 South Mercer street, became the bride of Bernard Eugene Cowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Cowden, 1232 South Mill street.

Rev. Thomas J. Jones officiated at the impressive candlelight ceremony that took place in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

Given in marriage by her brother, Harry M. Long, the attractive bride wore a gown of white velvety starched chiffon, styled with a mandarin collar, fitted bodice and long sleeves, tapering in points over the wrist, the bouffant skirt ending in a long court train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a band of tulle in a leaf design with seed pearl trim. She carried a white Bible, marked with a white orchid, and in her shoe was a sixpence, a gift from Mrs. Harriet Thomas.

Mrs. Edward M. Cowden, the groom's sister-in-law, Huntington, Ind., acted as best man for his brother, while Thomas J. Jones, Weirton, W. Va., the bride's cousin, Glenn Hoschar, Edwin McQuiston and Charles Cooley were ushers.

Dr. D. Gordon Jones, Butler, the bride's cousin, offered appropriate nuptial music. Earl Hammond, soloist, sang "Because," "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Promise Me."

Guests numbering 200, were entertained at a delightful reception in the church parlors.

Upon returning from a wedding trip by automobile to Florida, the young couple will reside at 1315 Albert street.

The new Mrs. Cowden, a graduate of New Castle senior high school in the class of 1945 and of Jameson Memorial hospital school of nursing in 1948, is a registered nurse, being employed by Dr. S. W. Perry, Jr.

Her husband, who was graduated from New Castle senior high school in the class of 1946 and of Slippery Rock State Teachers college in 1950, is a teacher in the Hickory township schools, Sharon.

LET'S GET 'EM ROLLING

It is now ten days since the bus drivers of the Shenango Valley Transportation Company left their jobs and the citizens of New Castle without automobiles have been walking.

The company offers six cents per hour increase in wages. The union insists upon 10 per cent increase which would mean about 12.8 cents per hour.

For the difference of 6.8 cents per hour and the refusal to arbitrate the question a city of 50,000 is harassed and handicapped. It's time something was done.

Up to now there has been considerable public feeling that the men should get an increase in wages. The company itself agrees to that position. The stumbling block seems to be in the position of the company that it cannot afford to pay the 10 per cent demanded.

Whether or not this is true could be quickly determined by an examination of the company's books by an impartial auditor. If it is true, and the men are entitled to more than six cents per hour, then the only answer would be an increase in bus rates.

The untenable position of the union is that it refuses to arbitrate unless the company grants the 10 per cent demanded.

In the meantime, according to a statement credited to Rolland Fisher, president of the drivers' union, made in Sharon, 85 per cent of the men are working at other jobs. If this is true it might mean one of two things. Either they are through working for the transportation company and have decided to change occupations or they expect to force the company to a settlement without any investigation of the facts.

Such a "public be damned" attitude is bad. Bad for the public, which is entitled to service and bad for public relations of the union.

This is not entirely a question between the drivers and the company. It is also a question of whether or not the public is to be served by a company that is in business by permission of the public, which permission is expressed through a franchise granted by the servants of the public, the Public Utility Commission.

Likewise, the men have been employed because the company was given a franchise. Included in that franchise is the obligation to render service to the districts in which the franchise is granted.

Mayor John F. Haven has made an honest effort to get the question settled and is continuing his efforts. He has proposed that the men go back to work at the six cent increase and then negotiate the difference. What can be lost by such a move?

No one will contest the right of the men to get as much compensation for their services as they can. No one will deny they are entitled to a raise in wages.

But the public can and is denying the right of any person, corporation or union to continue to deny them the right of transportation.

Mr. Fisher is the president of the local. As such it is presumed he speaks for the drivers. His position as leader carries with it a responsibility. It does not give him dictatorial rights to say whether or not men and women must walk at his whim.

The time is over due when some settlement should be made. If the word arbitration means anything, then it's time to arbitrate.

Let's find out what the company's earnings are. Let's find out what increase it is able to pay. But in the meantime, let's get the buses rolling.

ADM. SHERMAN MAY GET POST

Gen. Omar Bradley's term as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff expires soon and there is a growing belief in military circles that Adm. Forrest P. Sherman may be named to replace him. Sherman's performance as a witness in the Senate investigation of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's dismissal has boosted the admiral's chances considerably.

Some military men have expected President Truman to reappoint Bradley for another two-year term as JCS chairman, but the five-star general is quite willing to step down. Bradley's friends say he is willing to stay on in uniform if the president directs him to do so, but they report that Bradley believes that Sherman could handle the JCS job flawlessly.

Backers of Sherman point out that he commands the respect of the Army and Air Force and that the Navy under his regime as chief of naval operations has developed not only in strength but in morale.

Western Germany-Austria Problem

The political, economic and diplomatic difficulties involved in keeping Western Germany and Austria safely outside the Soviet orbit are to be placed before the United States Congress and there is every indication that utmost urgency will be stressed.

U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy will report on Germany, while Walter J. Donnelly, who holds an identical post in Vienna, will present the case for Austria.

It is certain that the two men will plead with Congress not to allow the present comparatively peaceful situations in both areas to give the idea that American responsibilities can in any way be sloughed off.

Red Pressure Eases Some Communist pressure on Western Germany has eased somewhat and Austria remains firm in its refusal to give more than five per cent of the total votes to a Communist candidate in any election.

But while these factors are reassuring in one respect they are disconcerting in another as both McCloy and Donnelly are known to fear they may result in diminution of American aid.

The economies of both Western Germany and Austria are in a precarious state.

Austria still has its breadlines, and while luxury commodities and food have made their appearance in the Western Zone of the Reich this does not mean that the rank and file of the people can afford any of them.

Seek Full Integration The Democratic powers are attempting to obtain a real integration of Western Germany into the Allied system, both as regards economies and German participation in Western defense.

In the absence of a peace treaty, many observers believe that a contractual agreement of some sort must be worked out between Germany and the Western world.

The Germans are pictured as ready and willing to make any contributions they are called upon to make. But they want something in the nature of national sovereignty, or at least equality.

They also hold that their financial needs were so disturbed by the Second World War and subsequent defeat that years may pass before the country is economically self-sufficient—in other words that American assistance must continue.

Germans Want Freedom Yes despite this dependency, the Germans want the greatest possible amount of freedom under the circumstances. West German political leaders are not sure they can keep the people in the Democratic ranks unless some measure of assurance is given in both the matters of sovereignty and financial support.

In many respects, the condition of Austria is worse than Western Germany despite the fact that it suffered far less than her Teutonic neighbor in material damage from aerial bombings during the war.

The ECA has poured more than a billion dollars into Austria since the end of the war.

For this the people are grateful and they are trying to show their appreciation by stepping up Austria's comparatively slim production.

There is still something of a hand-to-mouth existence, however.

Various Factors Blamed Various factors are blamed for this. Some observers say that American industry refuses to cooperate with the ECA, that the country has revived the medieval guild system and is trying to make up for deficiencies elsewhere by concentrating on tourist trade.

This is a comparatively simple way of bringing in dollars, for Austria retains its irresistible charm and the government has put controls on prices that make travel and hotels in Austria probably cheaper than anywhere else in Europe.

Donnelly has made a great impression on Austrian officials by his drive and determination to get things done.

But he has not won the complete cooperation of Austrian industrialists, who discourage a competition in trade that could be a major factor in bringing the country back to normal.

This attitude has troubled American officials trying to get Austria back on her feet and there is a growing feeling that perhaps Austria never will be able to stand on her own without foreign aid.

Donnelly is certain that the country can be made healthy and at least reasonably prosperous. But he feels that any let-up in American assistance would be extremely dangerous at this time, for Austria and for all of Europe. And Commissioner McCloy feels the same way about Germany.

He has no fears with sham to hide. For old and young he'll step aside. His smile will fellowship reflect. He'll grant to all what he'd expect if it had been the whim of fate. To leave him small instead of great.

The big man always thoughtful stays glad to cheer and quick to praise. He has no fears with sham to hide. For old and young he'll step aside. His smile will fellowship reflect. He'll grant to all what he'd expect if it had been the whim of fate. To leave him small instead of great.

State Police Say: Many new drivers are taking to the highways every day across the state. The mere fact that a driver has successfully completed his drivers examination does not place him in the expert driver class. This great influx of inexperienced drivers presents a special problem in highway safety and the experienced driver should be alert for signs of inexperience in other drivers and regulate their driving accordingly.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Took a little trip . . . with two of our oldest . . . had a wonderful time and have arrived again at the conclusion that everyone should take a little trip . . . This was our first in eleven years . . . that is all of us who are old enough to travel going at the same time. What an experience . . . we picked a place to visit that should be on the list of every American . . . And should be taken before election time.

Washington, D. C. . . what a place . . . why, they have more government buildings and more people doing nothing in these beautiful buildings than we have living in all of Lawrence County. What a waste of money . . . and whose money are they get money. The Yours and mine, of course . . . where else do the spenders waste? The probes that have been going on are just drop-in-the-bucket probes compared to what might be uncovered if the spirit really got going.

Housing is really a big problem for all these people staying in Washington . . . and the problem is being solved . . . New apartment buildings . . . the like of which you have never seen . . . unless, of course, you have been in Washington within the past few years. We counted nineteen new partially completed apartment buildings Sunday . . . The rent starts at 250 bucks per month . . . that gives you a bedroom . . . living room and small kitchen . . . more rooms, of course, means more rent.

Everyone has asked . . . did you see Harry? No we didn't . . . in fact we weren't looking for him . . . but found out for those we knew would be interested that he was away over the week-end . . . with some of his poker-playing pals. He makes frequent trips of that nature . . . has a little "tub" that we taxpayers keep running for such parties.

We have this to report . . . the recent redecoration of both the House and Senate rooms was done in good taste . . . and the air conditioning really works. Now if those we send to Washington do the same . . . maybe there is some hope. But we can't get over the extravagant buildings and the thousands who hang out therein.

HOW LONG CAN HE IGNORE IT?

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

Should Wind Up Senate Probe

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A way must be found, and quickly, to wind up the senate hearings into Gen. MacArthur's dismissal and the background of American policy in the far east. Legislative action vital to maintain stability at home and security abroad has been held up because of the inquiry.

Surely even the most hostile Republicans have now come to realize that they have failed to document their case against the administration. As the traditionally Republican New York Herald-Tribune put it:

"Nowhere in their lengthy cross-examination have the hostile senators seriously shaken the Acheson position or the prior policies; nowhere have they begun to sustain the vague mass of accusation of pro-communism, appeasement, betrayal, misfeasance and blunder—which has been woven around him, and one cannot really read the transcript of the hearings without being forced to the conclusion that most of this is simply to use Senator McMahon's words, an example of 'error being converted into accepted fact by constant iteration.'"

It is not that the policies followed by the administration have been shown to have been the perfect path to take. Not even the most partisan ally of the administration could possibly contend that.

What Was Shown But what Secretary of State Acheson has shown in his able presentation is (1)—That policy-makers in the face of overwhelming difficulties in a world in the flux of revolutionary changes took decisions that seemed in the light of all information available at the time to be the wisest decisions; and (2)—That most of the military and diplomatic leaders involved in the decisions that later have been challenged and disputed. The whole fabric of half-truths and plain lies alleging a conspiracy of misdirection has been shattered.

The best proof of this is that the politicians who still cling to that nasty and now discredited legend have been forced in continuing their attack to fall back on the old familiar outcries. To shout the same charges in the face of the same documented and thoroughly documented analysis put into the record is an abject confession of failure. And it is significant that insofar as it continues to come at all it comes from the incredible Owen Brewster of Maine and a few others who take a political line.

Moscow Gains? How much the plotters in the Kremlin in Moscow have gained since this detailing of past mistakes and present capacities and intentions only a few knowledgeable officials at the top of our intelligence system would be able to judge. They have at times during this lengthy recital been extremely pessimistic over the extent to which we were supplying the Soviet Union with priceless information and the evaluation of that information.

As for the American public, it has seemed to me that much good has come out of the inquiry. A great deal that has been put into the record could surely have been told long before this without disclosing anything of essential importance to the Russians. One reason it was not too difficult to build up the legend of a sinister conspiracy of misdirection was that the public knew so little about the ways and wherefores of major decisions.

What purposes can be served by stretching out the hearings indefinitely it is hard to see. Whether the current inquiry is the proper forum for getting at the facts about the China lobby is debatable.

Should Be Explored The power of that lobby and its resources should certainly be explored, since it has been an important factor in determining the direction—or lack of it—in Asian policy. But the task of exploration might well be turned over either to a senate sub-committee with an effective investigating staff or to some commission or agency of government capable of doing the job and charged with the responsibility for it.

Such an investigation would, of course, be concerned only in passing with the noisy hired mouthpieces of the lobby. It would be essential to get at the real sources of the money that has been spent and how it was used to buy influence. Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, who has been closely linked to the China lobby, proposed that the investigation be expanded to include the influence exerted in behalf of other countries receiving American aid. There would seem to be no reason why that should not be done.

No Cooperation In an interview with American reporters on Formosa not long ago, Chiang Kai-shek was asked about the huge sums of money taken by Chinese citizens formerly associated with Chiang and deposited in personal and hidden bank accounts abroad. Far from denying that such amounts had been taken out of the country, which is the official line of the Chinese embassy in Washington, Chiang complained that he had never had any cooperation from the state department or other American agencies in tracking down these hidden, private reserves.

How would be place to begin an investigation. But it would be only a starting point, since the China lobby has many ramifications that should be brought to light.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

It has been discovered that our college students know very little about geography, but a large number of this year's male graduates will visit either Korea or Europe for a first-hand survey.

Some students don't even know the population of the United States. All they know is that whether it's 130,000,000 or 160,000,000 General Hershey doesn't seem to have any difficulty locating the men he wants.

One student admitted he didn't know whether the United States is a democracy or a republic, but he is willing to give it to the Democrats on account of it's so long since the Republicans showed in the win column.

He says all he knew about our form of government was that it gives the voters the right to change administrations every four years, but they haven't bothered much.

He says he was taught that an election is a "peaceful revolution" but so far as he can testify it's hearsay because he hasn't seen any himself and he's 20.

But he's still willing to believe it.

They Say

WASHINGTON—United States delegate to the UN Warren Austin: "The best we can hope for from our new weapons is that one day we shall scrap most of them, and turn over the others to a U. N. police force."

WASHINGTON—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer: "I don't want to spill American blood all over the battlefields of Europe and the far east indiscriminately, and that is my fear."

LONDON—Margaret Truman: "My visit convinced me that more Americans and Britons should meet face to face."

Truth And Consequences

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—"A clean job with nice people: only barefaced liars need apply."

They haven't yet hung this help-wanted sign on the door of Assistant Secretary of State Edward Barrett, who's in charge of propaganda, but they might.

They might, that is, if one embattled group of psychological warriors at the State Department wins an argument about the Voice of America and other propaganda outlets. It's this group, as I've learned at the State Department, which was responsible for the truth-be-damned "Formosa directive" that Secretary Acheson tried to hush up when he was before the Russell committee.

Bone Of Contention This was the directive which ordered our foreign information officers to say that Formosa was of no military value to the U. S. and that we would view the island's capture by the Red Chinese with bored indifference. The statement, Acheson said, was untrue and only intended to confuse the enemy and save our face if Formosa happened to fall. Anyhow, use of the Big Lie in American diplomacy—or, as its apologists prefer to call it, the White Lie—is a bone of contention these days among State department officials.

The White Liars, who are understandably bashful about the use of their names, insist that this is no time in world history to fight by the rules of George Washington's Cherry Tree. If an untruth is functional, they say, tell an untruth and shame the angels. The Russians, they claim, didn't shine because the Foreign Office always came clean, did it? So if we're going "to win the battle for men's minds" from Russia and "police the world" as Britannia once did, let's not be squeamish. The end justifies the means—so go ahead and lie till the cows come home.

This line of reasoning by the White Liars, be it quickly stated, is not a State Department policy—not yet anyway. It's just a minority opinion. Psychological warriors today are still under orders to present what the State Department calls a "full and clear picture." And the Formosa directive was just one of those things—"an exception that proves the rule."

More Recent Example All right, but department spokesmen will privately admit that there was a more recent example of back-sliding on the truth. Assistant Secretary Dean Rusk went up to a New York dinner party and publicly told the world, in effect, that we'd never negotiate with Communist China. This wasn't true either. We'd be glad to negotiate a cease-fire in Korea with the Red Chinese. The purpose of the Rusk speech was propaganda—a White Lie floated in the form of a trial balloon. The advantage of a trial balloon is that you can let it float or you can shoot it down, depending on public reaction at home and abroad.

There are, no doubt, many other examples of falsehood and white lying in our ever-expanding theater of psychological warfare. But they don't as yet constitute a trend; they just raise an issue. Is honesty always the best policy? Or are we justified in trying to prevaricate our way into the minds of the befuddled world?

Here is poised a pair of $540,230,938 questions, that being the amount we've spent on propaganda between 1941-51. During World War II the Office of War Information and other batteries of psychological artillery poured lavish barrages of hate-Hitler propaganda into the enemy lines. It's yet to be discovered how many, if any, of these missiles found a target. Nazi Germany fought until the Russian troops poured over one border and the Allied forces closed in from the other side.

Have Appropriated Millions During the Cold War, beginning about 1947, we have appropriated multi-million dollar funds in order to croon and bellow at audiences all over the world. Many of the themes we now offer are very different from what we put forth before 1945—the villains and the heroes have been changed roles. Propaganda at best seems to be a matter of temporal convenience. And, again, there is little evidence—certainly not half a billion dollars' worth of evidence—that our necromancy has turned any sow's ears into silk purses. Propaganda at best seems to be an over-rated weapon.

Maybe the walls of Jericho fell before the blast of trumpets. But it looks like a poor bet that propaganda, even if it's true, is going to bring down the Iron Curtain.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

As all you who listen to radio and television debates know, nothing is ever settled by them.

When excitement is at its height, when the debaters have passed the insulting stage are about to hit each other, time's up and the weightiest questions on earth must give way to the virtues of whatever cigarette or laxative is sponsoring the program.

Thus I shall once again not be able to find out whether American morals are declining or just changing—a question which all of us would like to be able to answer.

The debate, on the "Town Meeting of the Air," was between two eminently learned men with many degrees and many years of education.

One was Dr. Bernard Iddings Bell of Chicago, noted clergyman, educator, author and lecturer.

Unlike many others of his background, he did not confine himself to "fog words" and generalities but gave facts.

American morals ARE declining, he said, and will continue to do so until, through their schools, homes and the church, our youngsters are taught what life really is, and that there are greater values than making money and getting power and position.

The other fellow, Dr. Thomas V. Smith, a professor of humanities and also an author of note, seemed to live in a modern Utopia.

He could see nothing wrong with our government, our morals, our way of life, our present generation.

It must be wonderful to live so completely detached from the realities of life.

But then Dr. Smith made a statement with which I thoroughly agree.

Someone in the audience asked him whether the alarming divorce rate is not a sign of moral deterioration.

"No," said the good professor, "to the contrary, I much prefer a good divorce to a bad marriage."

I am quoting him only approximately—you know how fast you have to listen to radio.

But his explanation, while contrary to the accepted rules of morality, certainly was logical.

When two people see that they have made a mistake, is it more courageous and more moral to stay together in hatred and discord than to break the ties and call it quits?

In the older, "more moral days" husbands and wives did not have the courage to admit their mistakes and get a divorce.

They were afraid of public opinion, of what the neighbors would say.

Today we have become more broadminded. We call a spade a spade.

If two partners in business disagree, they dissolve the partnership. If an employee cannot do the job for which he was hired, he is dismissed. If a president, a senator, a mayor disatisfies the voters they don't reelect him.

Why should matrimonial bankruptcy continue?

All old-fashioned notions notwithstanding, life is not something that can be lived on the clouds of idealistic imaginations.

It is not the divorce that is bad—it is the bad marriage that caused the divorce.

Funds Available For Farm Loans

David E. Service, supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration office, at Butler, which serves Butler, Beaver, and Lawrence counties, has returned from Harrisburg, where procedures and policies in administering farm loans were discussed.

Applications are being accepted for livestock and machinery loans, however, Mr. Service states that they probably will not be processed or paid until after the 1952 appropriation has been definitely allocated. Farm Housing loan applications, for the erection, repair or remodeling of a farm dwelling or outbuilding are also being taken.

The district office is located on the second floor of the Post Office building in Butler, which takes care of three counties: Butler, Beaver and Lawrence. Office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 8 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday.

Sen. McCarthy To Make Report On Secretary Marshall

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(INS)—Sen. McCarthy (R Wis.), has announced that on Thursday he will give the senate the results of a "monumental" study of Defense Secretary Marshall, whose decisions he charged contributed to "the planned, steady retreat from victory."

McCarthy's announcement was coupled with the declaration that the facts in the probe of Gen. MacArthur's dismissal cannot be exposed "without uncovering a conspiracy so immense and an infamy so black as to dwarf any previous such venture in the history of man."

The senator said that his "study" of Marshall's record would be based largely on comments of men friendly to the general. He added: "I realize full well how unpopular it is to lay hands on the laurels of a man who has been built into a great hero. I very much dislike this unpleasant task, but I feel that it must be done if we are to intelligently make the proper decisions in the issues of life and death before us."

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

In all the garish history of press agency, there has never been so frustrated a tub-thumper as Hollywood's Bill Pine who, at a cost of infinite patience and time, trained 50 parrots to repeat clearly the title of a new Mae West film called "It Ain't No Sin."

It was his intention to ship the parrots in turn to large cities where "It Ain't No Sin" was going to be premiered, counting on the unusual spectacle of 50 parrots chanting in unison to stupefy the natives and capture the extra space in the newspapers. The day before the first showing of the picture was scheduled, the producer called Bill Pine to his office. "Bill," he said, "I've news for you."

Volant Lions Hear Of A-Bomb

Also Start Plans For Fourth Program

Volant Lions were given an idea what might be expected should atomic warfare become a reality in their community when they heard W. R. Curley discuss the problem Tuesday evening. Twenty-one members were present to hear the talk and enter into the discussion which followed.

The meeting followed the dinner in the Volant Methodist church, with vice-president Elmer Brown presiding in the absence of president Paul Shaw. The latter is a patient in the Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, at the present time.

Mr. Curley was well qualified to discuss the threat of the A-bomb, having attended special training courses on the subject in Pittsburgh. He is a member of the county's civilian defense set-up. His topic was "What To Do If An A-Bomb Strikes". He gave detailed instructions as to precautions to be taken against maximum injury from the blast and told some of the important steps which should be observed in treating victims following the bombing.

Plan Fourth Celebration

During the business meeting plans were made for the annual Fourth of July celebration. Harold Shaw has been named general chairman of the event and it was especially stressed that the responsibility is great, requiring the fullest cooperation of every member of the club. All games will be under cover in case inclement weather is forecast for the day.

Plans are being made to have the Meridan Fife and Drum Corps present again for this year's parade, their presence and performance being one of the highlights of the 1950 event. Churches, civic organizations, clubs, etc., are urged to prepare floats for the parade. Prize money will be awarded to the three best displays, first prize being $25, second $15, and third $10. John Greer is chairman of the float committee, and anyone interested in entering the competition may contact him for further details.

An extra meeting will be held Tuesday evening, June 19, to complete the holiday preparations.

The next regular meeting will be held June 26, when newly elected officers will be installed. Committee members in charge of this week's dinner included Alice Lesnet, Gertrude Wallace, Olive Silvis, Esther Perdue, and Alice Perdue.

OBSERVE FATHER'S DAY!

Justice Department To Probe Cases Of Beef Violations

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(INS)—A top price controller said today the Office of Price Stabilization has referred to the Justice department "several pretty bad" cases of beef violations involving "some pretty big people."

The disclosure came as other price officials kept a close watch on the nation's 12 major livestock markets for further indications that the cattle industry may have surrendered in its bitter fight against the beef price rollbacks.

Cattle receipts rose yesterday and Price Stabilizer DiSalle said the cattlemen's battle may have ended.

Transit Strike In 54th Day At Detroit

DETROIT, June 13.—On its 54th day Detroit's trolley car and bus drivers' strike gave some hope today of settlement.

The basis for it was a long-awaited court verdict, but there still were reported a number of "ifs" in the way.

At the same time Mayor Albert E. Cobb and city transport officials sent out orders to prepare the huge system for early re-operation. It carries about 1,000,000 passengers daily.

Planes Collide But Pilots Are Saved By Parachuting

CUMBERLAND, R. L. June 13.—(INS)—Two Air Force F-86 Sabre jets collided over Cumberland but both pilots parachuted to safety.

The pilots, Lts. M. A. Corba, of Belleville, O., and L. R. Kirby of Burlington, Vt., were taken to Notre Dame hospital in Central Falls where they were reported "not in clerical condition."

The two planes were part of a formation of five from Otis Field, Camp Edwards, Mass.

Mrs. William A. Curtis, ironing in her home in the village of Arnold's Mills, reported the accident. She said she heard an explosion and rushed to the door in time to see one of the pilots parachuting to earth.

She summoned police and firemen who removed the pilots to the hospital.

The section of Arnold's Mills, near Abbott Run, where the crash occurred is thinly settled and heavily wooded, although the planes came down in a cleared field.

'Suicide' Verdict In Mystery Death Of Mrs. Stillman

NEW YORK, June 13.—(INS)—An official verdict of "suicide" today cleared the mystery in the death of Mrs. Lena Wilson Stillman, 41, whose marriage took her from backwoods to bank wealth.

Westchester County District Attorney George M. Fanelli announced a formal ruling would be made to that effect.

He refused to reveal contents of a note found in a cardboard file cabinet in the Socialite's auto, but he described her as "depressed."

Mrs. Stillman's body was found Sunday in the bedroom of her Pocantico Hills home at Pleasantville.

Guilty Is Verdict On Gambling Charge

Guilty as indicated was the verdict returned late Tuesday night in the Lawrence County Court house against H. E. Confer, Anthony Conti and Domenick Vitale.

The three men were each charged with being a common gambler, establishing a gambling place and keeping a disorderly house.

It was charged they operated the Lawrence A.C., at 107 West Washington street and that the club was a gambling house.

District Attorney Sherman K. Levine produced testimony showing it was such a place. The defendants denied the allegations and said the place had not been used as a club room since July. The jury returned a verdict at 9:45 and Judge John G. Lamore received it. Previously, about 7:30 the jury had asked for further instructions.

OPERATOR IN CUSTODY
James B. Lesher, R.D. 2, was arrested by Policemen Birt and Davis in Sampson street at 1:50 a.m. today on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

MINISTER'S WIFE TELLS HOW HADACOL WAS SO HELPFUL

HADACOL Helps Folks With Weak, Run-Down Conditions, Poor Appetite, When Caused by Deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

A week, run-down condition can make life mighty drab for folks who feel that way. Imagine not having a good appetite. Loss of weight and energy oftentimes accompany this condition. When Mrs. Ardena Longaker, a minister's wife, who lives at Rt. 5, Meadowbrook Rd., North Kansas City, Mo., began feeling that way she began taking HADACOL for she had heard how it was helping people with weak, run-down conditions and poor appetite, when due to a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Now, Mrs. Longaker says she feels good and is recommending HADACOL to her friends.

Here is what she says: "I am a minister's wife and am 39 years old. I was run-down, lost weight, was listless, and had no appetite at all. I'm on my fifth bottle now and am amazed at the results. I want to eat all the time now. Most of all, I'm glad to say, I've gained several pounds. HADACOL is so economical. I believe almost anyone can afford it, and I do recommend it to my friends."

HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the REAL CAUSE of weak, run-down conditions, stomach distress, nervousness, poor appetite and nagging aches and pains when due to the lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in the system.

AND LISTEN TO THIS! Continued use of this great HADACOL not only gives continuous complete relief but helps keep such painful distress from returning when caused by such deficiencies. Now that's the kind of product you have been waiting for. That's the kind you should buy and start taking at once.

And HADACOL'S wonderful Vitamins and Minerals come in special pleasant liquid form so they are quickly absorbed and assimilated in the blood, ready to go to work at once.

HADACOL IS SO EFFECTIVE
Because HADACOL helps build

Mrs. Longaker

up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ and to every part of your body. You may have tried other Vitamin preparations or other Vitamins and Mineral preparations, so we make you this offer. Try a bottle of HADACOL today. You be the judge. If you do not believe that HADACOL is the best Vitamin and Mineral preparation you have ever taken, we will gladly send you back your money. That's our positive money-back guarantee.

So be fair to yourself. Don't go through life suffering from these conditions when caused by lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drug store.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES
There's only one HADACOL. Don't let anyone tell you something else is "just as good". Insist on genuine HADACOL. You risk nothing because HADACOL is sold on a strict money-back guarantee.

Sold at all drug stores. Trial size, $1.25, but buy the large family-size, only $3.50.

Memorial Rose Garden Is Beauty Spot At Present

One of the beauty spots in New Castle for the past two weeks has been the memorial rose garden on the property of the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Fifteen hundred rose bushes seem to have been vying with each other in the production of breath-taking beauty and the entire picture has been one of riotous color.

Reds, dark and light, pinks, yellows and whites, every bush loaded with blooms and every one a name variety.

The garden was put in several years ago by the Lawrence County Garden club in honor of the men and women who served in the second world war.

Explanation For Cowardice Charge Asked Of Chaplain

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(INS)—The Navy demanded an explanation today from Chaplain Otto E. Sporrer of San Diego, Cal., as to why he accused Army units of cowardice and incompetence in the Chosin reservoir fighting in Korea last November.

Navy Secretary Matthews forwarded the demand by letter to Sporrer after receipt of a report in which Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway accused the Navy chaplain of "slandering" many brave men.

The Far Eastern commander said in his report to Army Secretary Pace that "he (Sporrer) has slandered the reputation of many brave and honorable soldiers, both alive and dead." Ridgway said action by the Defense department is "imperatively in order."

Sporrer's charges were made in the magazine Fortnight last February, and applied especially to the 31st Regimental combat team of the U.S. Seventh Infantry division, an outfit of 2800 men.

In defending the conduct of the men, Ridgway said that from November 28 to December 1 they withstood "repeated attack of more than 20,000 Chinese Communist forces before being overwhelmed."

Ridgway said the outfit lost 90 per cent of its 100 officers in dead and wounded and had a total of 86 per cent casualties. Only 1600 of the men were listed as "survivors" and only 385 of these were able-bodied at the end of the three-day action.

The Navy said it will have no further comment until it receives Sporrer's reply. As a chaplain, Sporrer has the rank of lieutenant commander in the Navy.

Special guests were Mrs. Agnew of Phoenix, Ariz., sister of Miss Elizabeth Hay, church missionary in Assam, India, and the new minister's wife, Mrs. Garth C. Koch.

Mrs. Frank Hay, president, presided and Mrs. Clare Lutz led the group in singing, accompanied by Mrs. Wesley Luikart at the piano. Theme of the coming year is "The Christian Home In This Hour". Mrs. Frank Hay conducted devotional, with Mrs. W. H. Williams offering prayer.

Mrs. Paul Weller sang three vocal numbers entitled "Little Damsel," Nevella; "In My Garden," Idabel Firestone; and "Daddy's Sweetheart," Liza Lehmann, accompanied by Mrs. Luikart.

Mrs. Frank Hay introduced the speaker, Mrs. Linda Seymour, a returned missionary from Africa, who gave a most entertaining talk on the customs and habits of the people of Africa.

A memorial service was held honoring six departed members and was conducted by Mrs. Montgomery Rodgers, with Joyce McClelland assisting. Miss Clara Dicks sang softly "Beyond the Sunset" during the service. Mrs. Rodgers closed with a poem, "There Is No Fear". Mrs. A. W. Zeigler gave mission flashes of month, giving highlights of the work of each missionary in the field. The following new officers were installed at the business meeting: president, Mrs. J. A. Porte; first vice president, Mrs. Montgomery Rodgers; second vice president, Mrs. Trevor Griffith; secretary, Mrs. Jesse Joseph; treasurer, Mrs. C. Leroy Martin.

Can you beat this measure of car value?

Of standard-built cars used as taxicabs, there are far more Plymouths than any other make...in fact, there are more Plymouths than all other makes combined!

Those who own taxicabs are experts on car value. They have to be! Their very living depends on their judgment in selecting the right car.

This selection is not made on "hunch" or "sentiment" or loyalty to any make.

In the cold light of fact, taxicab owners test all makes of cars for everything—roominess, riding comfort, handling ease, braking action, maintenance cost, day-and-night dependability—everything!

As the result of these continuous tests, the overwhelming majority of taxicab owners say: "The car for our money is Plymouth!"

Isn't this pretty convincing proof that Plymouth is the car for your money, too? But you don't have to take somebody else's word for it. Your Plymouth dealer will gladly arrange a demonstration now. Then you can put the Plymouth through your own tests and see for yourself.

Folks Make Request

Speaking for the people of that part of Union township through which Highway 422 passes, Township Supervisor Edward Hanna on Tuesday appeared before the county commissioners.

"The crossing of the new 422 and old 422 near the Harbor is a dangerous one," said Mr. Hanna. "Since the new highway has been in operation, there have been seven traffic deaths. We believe a traffic light at the intersection would reduce the hazard and the people of the township request one."

The commissioners were sympathetic to the idea and mentioned the fact that a similar condition had existed at Harlandburg. There, the county provided the light, the city of New Castle electricians installed the light and Scott township pays for its maintenance and operation. It is possible such an arrangement may be worked out for 422.

Mr. Hanna also presented a signed petition of 82 residents of the township asking that the speed limit on 422 through the township be cut from 50 miles per hour to from 25 to 30. This is a matter for the State Highway department the commissioners felt.

KIRSCH COMMUTED
The sentence of Allen R. Kirsch, now serving time in the penitentiary for larceny has been commuted by Governor John S. Fine. Kirsch was sentenced to from 1 1/2 to 3 years for larceny, on May 10 1950. He has served over a year of the minimum and will be released.

DEFENSE TESTIFIES
On Tuesday morning the defense started testimony in the case against H. E. Confer, Anthony Conti and Domenick Vitale. The three are charged with being common gamblers, establishing a gambling house and keeping a disorderly house.

On the night of December 15, 1950 county city and state officers raided the Lawrence A. C. on West Washington street and arrested the three men. District Attorney Sherman K. Levine produced testimony to show the place was a known gambling house.

In defense, H. E. Confer said he did have two pool tables at 107 West Washington street but that they had not been in use since last July. He said on the night of the raid, he and some friends had gone into the rooms to see a telecast of President Truman's speech. He denied there had been any gambling, said he was the proprietor of a nursery and said the club had not been in use for months.

DOG LICENSES HIGH
Dog owners have paid more attention to licensing their pets this year than they have in many years. As of Tuesday noon 10,787 dogs had been licensed which is about 400 higher than this time last year. Not so many years ago the year's total did not reach 10,000.

CONTINUE 20 CASES
Twenty cases scheduled for the June term of criminal court have been continued by District Attorney Sherman K. Levine for various reasons.

SON GRADUATES

Bush. The junior Bush graduated in the pre-legal course with honors, graduating summa cum laude. His work as a student won him the coveted Phi Beta Kappa fraternity membership. Barring any other plans by Uncle Sam, he intends to enter Harvard Law school where he has been accepted.

Will Advise Those Affected By New Social Security
New Castle Social Security Office is a very busy place these days, with a big boost in activity due to the recent widespread changes in the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance System.

Nevertheless, Myron Milbourn, manager, today issued a special invitation to people in several groups to get in touch with his office promptly, if they have not already done so since the new law went into effect. He gave the following list:

1. People 65 or over who have worked as much as a year and a half on social security covered jobs. Those in this group who are age 75 or over can now get monthly benefits even though still regularly employed.
2. Mothers, or other persons in charge of minor children of deceased World War II veterans.

Also dependent parents of deceased World War II veterans.

3. Wives under age 65, in families where the husband and one or more minor children are receiving benefits. Under the new law, the wife in these cases can also qualify for payments, even though she is under age 65.
4. Fathers, or other persons caring for children of deceased women workers. Children formerly could not get monthly benefits from their mother's social security account if their father was a member of the same household at the time of her death. Now in many cases, those children can be paid.

"There are hundreds of people in this vicinity," Mr. Milbourn said, "who are in one of these categories and who can qualify for benefits upon making application. They can get all necessary blanks and information by getting in touch with our office at 500 Frew building in New Castle, Pa."

Lutherlyn Camp Open For Season
More than fifteen hundred people attended "Lutherlyn Day," marking the third anniversary of the opening of Camp Lutherlyn, near Prospect, the leadership training camp of the Pittsburgh Synod, United Lutheran church, Sunday afternoon.

The new Assembly hall, constructed last year, was officially dedicated as "The Rice Memorial Hall" in memory of Mrs. Elmer F. Rice and in honor of Rev. Dr. Rice, Manorville. Dr. and Mrs. Rice have been interested in the Camp since its inception and rendered many services to the Lutherlyn development program. Dr. Rice has been treasurer of the Lutherlyn board since its beginning. Mrs. Rice became an untiring booster of the camp through her influence in the Women's Missionary society of the Pittsburgh Synod. She was instrumental in organizing thirteen societies, all of which are still active. Mrs. Rice died last November. The dedication was conducted by Rev. Paul E. Daugherty, pastor of First Lutheran church, Butler, and president of the Lutherlyn board.

CROP PROTECTION

NEW YORK.—(INS)—It pays to plant special foods for the birds and insect pests if you want to save your regular fruit crop. Birds will gorge themselves on Juneberries and Mulberries and leave apricots and other fruits untouched in an orchard. So, House Beautiful points out, commercial food growers, plant these delicacies to tempt the "raiders" from the more valued crop. In addition, a few gourds will keep the cucumbers free from invading beetles. Paper money was first issued in the United States by the colonists in 1690.

Father Is Facing Murder Charges In Child's Death

ERIE, Pa., June 13.—(INS)—Erie county District Attorney Damian J. McLaughlin has filed murder charges against Charles Hufman of nearby Corry, who is accused of kicking his 13-month-old daughter to death because she refused to stop crying.

At the first autopsy Pathologist Dr. John Fust of Erie's Hamot hospital had ruled that little Joyce Marie died of septicaemia, an infection of the blood stream.

But after Hufman admitted kicking his daughter just 24 hours before her death, officials had the body taken from the grave for a second autopsy which led to the murder charge.

The Hufmans had taken the child to Corry hospital and told authorities she had fallen on the steps of their home. Police investigated after neighbors told them Hufman previously had beaten the baby.

ONE CANDLE POWER BLAZE

NEW YORK, June 12.—(INS)—New York firemen were called out last night to battle a one-candle-power blaze.

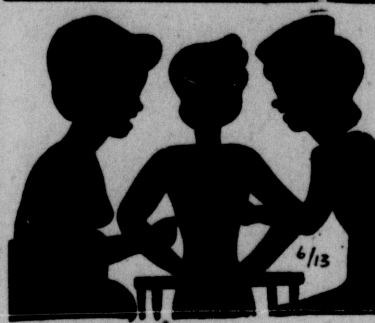

They turned up with apparatus at a flat on Second avenue and found that the "fire" was a candle burning in a window.

In Malverne, N. Y., firemen were called to the home of Dirk Dorresteyn to put out a fire in a fireplace.

The first fur trading post in the United States was established by Plymouth Colony Pilgrims at Augusta, Me., in 1628.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Fraternity Of Parents

Mrs. Brownell felt a lot better after the parent discussion group she had attended at Billy's school. That night she was talking about her experience with her husband. "You know," she said, "I thought Billy was probably the only child in the neighborhood who made a fuss about going to bed. But several other mothers have the same trouble. And I got some ideas from them about what to do."

Later, she was talking over the same sort of thing with the woman next door. They agreed that it helped a great deal to know that other parents are "in the same boat." The feeling of not being alone, of sharing one's worries, made it a lot easier to deal with the day-by-day problems that come up with children.

Sharing ideas and experiences with other parents, individually or in regular discussion groups put on by the PTA, has helped many a mother and father to do a better job as parents. Not only may one get some practical suggestions, but equally important is the sense of fraternity, of knowing that others have gone through the same experiences and that things have turned out all right.

SKIN THE CAT

Butch and Susy have lots of fun playing Skin the Cat. They do not worry much about skin care, and look what beautiful skin they have.

Sally fusses about her skin. She puts face cream and powder and red stuff on it.

Water inside and outside and plenty of soap to clean it up and then a dash of cold water and a few pats to finish the job. People like to talk to Grandma because she has such a nice face.

THESE folks are enjoying something that's being pioneered by Buick.

It's freedom from the blinding glare of bright summer sunlight.

It's freedom from hot laps—caused by the sun's rays beating down through the broad expanse of windshield.

These freedoms trace to a new feature you may have noticed in '51 Buicks—a new kind of glass† with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, in every glass area of the car, front, side and back.

Buick engineers tell us that this "Buick first" reduces glare 18% over conventional glass—cuts sun heat as much as 45%—and Buick engineers are very conservative fellows.

This glare-and-heat-reducing Easy-eye glass is factory-installed at moderate extra charge. It gives you a built-in transparent "sun visor" right in the windshield—and it also dulls the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night.

As we've said, this is something Buick owners were the first to enjoy. It takes its place with such exclusives as the valve-in-head Fireball Engine—coil springs on all four wheels—the firm power linkage of torque-tube drive—and the magic of Dynaflo.*

As we've also said—rather modestly—"Smart buy's Buick."

Come in soon and find out what an understatement that really is.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

No other car provides all this:

DYNAFLOW DRIVE* • FIREBALL ENGINE
4-WHEEL COIL SPRING • DUAL VENTILATION
PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE

Tax Increase Bill Is Ready For Congress

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, June 13—(INS)—The House ways and means committee today completed action on a new tax-increase bill designed to bring in an additional seven and one-half billion dollars a year in revenue.

The 25-member group will meet tomorrow to report the bill formally to the House. Chairman Doughton (D) N. C., said the measure will probably be called up for House vote next week.

Today's action climaxed four and one-half months of public hearings and closed-door sessions. The administration had urged Congress to vote an additional ten billion dollars a year in taxes.

Here are the major tax boosts voted by the committee, subject to House and Senate approval: Individual income taxes, twelve and one-half percent, $2,854,000,000 a year; corporation income taxes, five percentage points, $2,085,000,000; excess corporation profits, $730,000,000.

Ten percent tax on gambling receipts, $400,000,000; excise (consumer) taxes, $900,000,000; twenty percent withholding tax on interest and dividends paid by corporations, savings banks, and building and loan associations, $423,000,000.

Major Factor Today

In the major action taken today, the committee boosted manufacturers' excise taxes by roughly 450 million dollars a year. A similar boost in excise taxes paid at the retail level was approved yesterday.

In a major reversal, the committee eliminated today the tax on electrical energy which has been in effect since 1932.

This will result in a 104 million dollars revenue loss which may ultimately be passed on by public utilities to the consumer. Under existing law, consumers pay a three and one-third percent tax on their electricity for commercial and domestic uses, but not industrial purposes.

Major manufacturers' excise tax increases approved today included: Gasoline, one and one-half cents to two cents a gallon, $220,000,000; passenger cars, seven percent to ten percent, $196,000,000; trucks, buses, and truck trailers, five percent to eight percent, $61,000,000; automotive parts and accessories, five percent to eight percent, $56,000,000.

Historical Medical Highlights No. 21

ONE day in October 1831, a nine year old boy named Louis Pasteur ran from a gathering at the door of a village smithy in Eastern France. A man had just been mangled by a mad wolf, spitting poison foam from the mouth, and the blacksmith was burning out the infected flesh with a hot iron. The incident remained indelibly on Pasteur's mind. For years he experimented to discover an effective treatment for canine madness, called hydrophobia or, more commonly, rabies. Finally in 1885 the Academy of Sciences accepted his treatment of rabies as one of the greatest accomplishments in medical history.

There is nothing experimental about the filling of prescriptions by our highly specialized pharmacists. Thoroughly trained, they conscientiously compound prescriptions in a scientific, accurate manner.

Pittsburgh Attorney Held For Grand Jury On Sedition Charges

PITTSBURGH, June 13—(INS)—A Port Vue, Pa., Justice of the Peace last night held Pittsburgh Attorney Hymen Schlesinger for grand jury action on sedition charges.

Charges were brought by Matthew Cvetcic, a former undercover agent for the FBI, who told Squire Rudolph Antonice that he was not indicted by Common Pleas Court Jurist Michael A. Musmanno who previously was over-ruled by the State Supreme Court in attempting to jail Schlesinger for contempt of court.

In other testimony, Cvetcic claimed he had met Schlesinger "100 or more times at Communist party functionary meetings," and added that "functionaries" were party officials.

The Pittsburgh attorney, free on $1,500 bond, was to confer with Allegheny County District Attorney William A. Rahauser about continuance of bail.

In less than 24 hours, France became the fourth country to designate use of its forces by the U. N. under the Acheson "uniting for peace" plan.

Britain earlier announced that its commonwealth forces, including those in Korea and for the defense of western Europe, would be placed at U. N. disposal.

Seeks To Safeguard Gas Discoveries In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, June 13.—(INS)—Legislative curbs to safeguard natural gas discoveries in Pennsylvania was called for today by Sen. George B. Stevenson (R) Clinton.

His proposal was prompted by failure to win controls to prevent waste in the natural gas field being exploited in Clinton county. Stevenson proposed that protection plans should be drafted by the joint state government commission, a legislative fact-finding agency, for consideration by the General Assembly in 1953.

Sees No Decisive Allied Victory In Korea War

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Lt. Gen. Wedemeyer declared Tuesday he does not foresee a decisive allied victory in Korea and urged the U. S. to stop pouring "effort, bodies and materials" into what he called a "bottomless pit" for American manpower.

The general testifying for the second day in the senate probe of Gen. MacArthur's dismissal, renewed his sweeping criticism of the administration's Korean war program. He charged that American lives are being wasted "in an area which is not important to us strategically."

He said an armistice at the 38th parallel would leave the United Nations objective of a free and democratic Korea unaccomplished, and asserted that because their country has been "ravished" the South Koreans never will have a "strong love" for the UN.

Wedemeyer, who on Monday called for a break in diplomatic relations with Russia and full U. S. mobilization, said more emphasis should be placed on American air power, and that everything possible should be done to disrupt the Soviet economy. He explained that he meant the U. S. should deny Russia "such things as oil and rubber."

The three-star general warned against any land struggle with Russia, and also declared that "we shouldn't fight large scale operations in China." He observed: "That is not a critical, decisive, strategic area insofar as I am concerned."

Confetti Shower Is Planned In Texas For Gen. MacArthur

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 13.—

(INS)—There will be no booming gun salute for General MacArthur when he arrives at Fort Worth on Saturday but citizens have been asked to toss confetti at the hero.

The public information officer of the fourth army in San Antonio told Fort Worth's MacArthur Day planners that a Fort Sill, Okla., battery slated to fire a salute for the general won't be able to appear because of "troop commitments." The PIO also said that he doubted that a battalion of soldiers scheduled to march at San Antonio when the general visits there would be able to do so because the recent overseas shipment of the second armored division from Fort Hood, Tex.

The Fort Worth program committee then appealed to citizens to shower General MacArthur with confetti.

Way Paved For Color Television Broadcasts Soon

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(INS)

—The Federal Communications Commission said today it will grant a hearing to anyone who can improve on the color television developed by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

In a clarifying statement, the commission said the supreme court decision designating CBS as the "chosen instrument" was not intended to "close the door to further experimentation." It added: "In a field as relatively new as radio in general and television in particular, there is always room for genuine programs of experimentation."

The commission emphasized, however, that any new system must meet government laboratory tests which reflect the agency's "criteria."

The statement made it plain that CBS commercial colorcasts will not be held up pending the consideration of another system. Under the supreme court ruling, CBS can begin its programs June 23.

POWER-PACKED - and then some!

THERE are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered ½- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go!"

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

There's the smooth GMC Synchro-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle.

And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through a GMC's broad-shouldered frame!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's are made in the widest variety of engine-body-chassis combinations to meet any trucking need. And the prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

Butler Tigers Defeat Indians 4 To 3, in 10-Inning Thriller

Final Game Of Series Here Tonight Providing Weatherman Sees Fit

In one of the best games of the year at Flaherty Field last night, the Butler Tigers edged the New Castle Indians 4-3 in 10-innings, when Stan Machinsky, the Tigers right-fielder, belted a home run with one man on.

It was a heart-breaker for William Ciske (2-4) to lose, after engaging in a sterling mound battle with Art Donato, over the regulation nine innings, allowing but five hits until the 10th inning. Donato held the Indians to six hits, four of them until the tenth. The Indians showed a run across in the last of the 10th, but couldn't tie it up or win, leaving two men stranded.

Geer Will Get Nod Tonight

Providing the weatherman sees fit, tonight it will be Ken Geer on the mound for New Castle, trying for his third win of the year against one defeat. Butler will counter with Bill Dunn, the lad who beat them here May 14th to 5.

The Indians are hopeful of getting their two hitting stars, Walt Kowalski and Steve Magula back into the lineup tonight.

Business Manager Jack Lewis today announced the signing of a young second baseman—Joe Barbato, 19, of New Haven, Conn., who has been playing with Jamestown, N. Y., in the Class D Pony league. He was with Flint and Richmond, Indiana last year.

Indians Take Lead

The Indians took a 2-0 lead in the first inning, when Toles singled to drive Green in from third, the left-fielder having walked and advanced to second on an error by Allen on a liner by Butler, and took third as Frisina walked.

Butler Tigers tied it up in the fourth on two hits, singles by Machinsky and Patterson and a walk to Subbiondo. Patterson drove in Machinsky and Subbiondo scored as Vierierra hit into a fast double play, Frisina to Butler to Toles. The Indians pulled off two fast double killings last night. In the top of the tenth with Tigers on first and third, Horne and Sakanech trapped Allen off third and Sakanech threw out Quatararo trying for third on the play. Allen had opened the inning by hitting a triple to deep right.

Indians Rally Falls

Ben Rossman led off the tenth by pinch-hitting for Ciske and bunted safely. Bilo walked. Green fanned. Chet Butler singled to right and Rossman tallied. Frisina walked and Bilo on an attempted double steal was trapped off third, as Frisina stole second. Toles ended the game by grounding out, third to first.

Frisina and Butler pulled off two sparkling plays in the sixth, retiring runners on hard hit liners. Tonight's game (weather allowing) will start at 8 o'clock. The Indians will be away the next three days, playing three at Erie and three at Niagara Falls. Erie will appear here Wednesday.

The net receipts for Ezzard Charles' defense of the heavyweight title against Joey Maxim at Chicago, recently amounted to $55,369, a figure so low that future generations delving into the annals of these times will probably regard it as a typographical error.

White Sox Increase Lead By Blanking Senators 3-0

Browns Defeat Yankees, 5 To 1, Giants Move Up

Preacher Roe Wins Ninth Of Season

By HOWARD SIGMANT
(L. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 13.—It is quite apparent today that the favorite expression of the Chicago White Sox is "hit the road."

Also quite obvious are the facts that St. Louis Browns—past and present—did a lot to get the Palehos three and a half games up front in the American league, and that Lou Kretlow just "loves" those Washington Senators.

Taking last things first, you end up with the Browns in either case, Kretlow is the unwelcome right-hander the Sox acquired from the Browns for the waiver price last July.

Senators Blanked

Lou pitched the Chixos to their second straight win as he blanked the Nats, 3 to 0, on—that's right—four hits again.

The road-strong Sox got help from the Browns at Yankee stadium, a place where the New York Yankees are supposed to be almost invincible. Here it was Duane Pilleto, an ex-Bomber who pitched the Browns to a 5 to 1, four-hit triumph over the world champions.

Roe Wins Ninth

Were it not for the phenomenal White Sox and their amazing doings, lefty Preacher Roe of the Brooklyn Dodgers would be baseball's big story today. The bag of muscles from Hardy, Ark., continued undefeated as he notched his ninth consecutive victory last night by turning back the St. Louis Cardinals, 6 to 2.

Another oldtimer to win his ninth game last night was Cleveland's Bob Feller. Bobby boy staggered to win No. 9 against only one loss as the Indians beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 8 to 6.

In another American league game the Detroit Tigers coasted to a 7 to 3 win over the Boston Red Sox.

Monte Irvin's three-run homer in the 10th inning gave the New York Giants a 6 to 3 win over the Cincinnati Reds and moved them into second place in the National league.

The Boston Braves walloped the Pittsburgh Pirates 13 to 3. In a day game the Philadelphia Phillies nosed out the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 5.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

CLEVELAND INDIANS have a rookie, Bob Chakales, whose name is pronounced as "Shackles". He occupies number five spot on the Indians hurling staff and is quite a slugger. He was All-State in football, basketball and baseball when he went to school at Richmond, Va. . . . Some theaters throughout the country will carry televised accounts of tonight's Louis-Savold bout, in New York City. . . . Male Sage grouse some times weigh as much as eight pounds. . . . Fred Marcella is a commissioner in the City Baseball loop, and he takes his office seriously. He has been very useful in hustling scores into The News. . . . Mickie Solomon, local referee, no doubt will get his first assignment of the year Friday night at a mat show at Flaherty field. . . . Jake Elias, city employee, who is of Lebanese extraction, reports he and a crowd of Lebanese extraction, will watch Sheba Zenna in mat tag action Friday night. . . . Owen Fox, local outdoorsman, has promised to do a story and pen a cartoon on "Poisonous Reptiles" for The News sports page. . . . He says it is very difficult to tell a bald eagle from a turkey buzzard because of the height at which they fly. . . . To become a special fish warden, it is advisable to secure the recommendation of a local sportsmen's organization and submit it to the local fish warden—who, in Lawrence county, is Robert Betts, 813 Butler avenue. . . . Khaki Genrock is asked to telephone Here and There, regarding his recent request. . . . Wampum apparently is fulfilling the prediction "Watch Wampum in the City loop". Wampum captured the 1950 County circuit pennant. . . . Auto stock races will be held twice weekly, Tuesday and Friday nights, when the Pulaski track opens, which is expected to be July 4, according to Chester Thompson, New Wilmington. . . . Billy Frengel Jr., 174, ex-Ne-Ca-Hi track and field man, likes to box and would like to take instructions from Eddie Sulk, former pro at Penn State who succeeded Leo Houck, but Papa Billy, who was a tough, rough lightweight, says "Stick to track and field."

JOE RICK employs a staff of eight at the Rick Stock farm. He expects to take his string of harness horses to Painesville this week. . . . Five home runs by the Indians Monday night proves the Mid-Atlantic circuit is a hitters' league. . . . Among those yet, recalled for their flinging is Steve Hunic of Mahoningtown. . . . Jim Cross comes from the Slippery Rock creek for trout as though his rod and line was a fine tooth comb. He catches his share. . . . Cecil Suber and Bill Carlin are getting ready for their Canadian fishing journey. . . . Time was when almost every barber shop boasted of a barber who played a guitar, banjo or mandolin. Nowadays music is conspicuous by its absence from the shops. . . . A catcher who played in the minors is Gus Thompson. . . . One of the best baseball duels ever staged here was a game in Mahoningtown when Paul McCullough and Joe Hartman pitched a tie 16-inning game. . . . Cascade Park once had one of the finest baseball fields in the country. In those days Carl Reebel was no slouch as an infielder. The Castle Cords staged their exciting games there. . . . Son like father: Dick Kroesen, Fess infielder, fields like his father, Scrappy, did in the days of the Terrace A.C. . . . A group of young men held a steak dinner along the Slippery Rock creek. Their driver came to town and apparently forgot, or failed to pick 'em up, hence several of them had to build a bonfire and spend the night along the creek. . . . And now that night baseball is in vogue at Bessemer, attendance will perk up. . . . One seldom sees Mickie Rubin nowadays. There was a time when he was a rough, tough, wild slugger o' the ring. . . . Harry (Sleep) Allen, now of Provo, Utah, who pitched for the Tin Mill and other teams here years ago, watched the Indians play several nights ago. He left for Provo Tuesday. His brother "Nig" was a catcher. . . . Lank Warnock is improved in the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Pirates Sign Up
Drexel Tech Star

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—Vincent J. Filiben, captain and shortstop of Drexel Tech's baseball nine, has his traveling orders today to report Sunday to the Burlington, N. C., class "B" Carolina league of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Filiben was signed to a $750-bonus contract on the glowing recommendation of scout George Siler. His batting mark this season was .352. A left-hander, Filiben led his club with 19 hits and three doubles.

Paul Waner holds the Pittsburgh Pirate record for most hits in a single season—237 in 1927.

EXHIBITION GAME

Fourth Ward team will play an exhibition game with the Mahoning Valley Supply team of Youngstown at Winslow avenue field at 6:15. Batteries for the fourth ward will be Long and Flannery, it is announced. The public is invited to come.

FIRST WARD WINS

Firts Ward won a practice game from the Fifth Ward 7-0 Tuesday evening at Deshon field.

PROTECTIVE CAPS

Protective caps have been purchased by the New Castle Little League for use in league games. It is reported by league officials.

These caps, similar to the ones used in the major leagues, are insurance against boys being injured by pitched ball while at bat. They will only be worn while a boy is at bat.

National Boxing Association rules stipulate that a fighter must defend his championship every six months but Joey Maxim has yet to risk his light heavyweight crown in the 16 months he has held it. Maxim won the 175-pound division crown on Jan. 24, 1950, by knocking out Freddie Mills in 10 rounds in London.

Would Change
Baseball RuleWould Allow Scouts
To Talk To 'Kids'

CINCINNATI, O., June 13.—(INS)—A new baseball rule now taking shape in Cincinnati would permit club representatives to discuss contracts with boys before they are graduated from high school.

Clubs are currently not allowed to approach a high school player until he is through with his academic work. This rule expires Dec. 31.

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler said the decision to ease up on the rule was reached at a meeting recently. Chandler said:

"Football team representatives and others are allowed to talk to the boys before they graduate, so why shouldn't the baseball people have the same right? I think the old rule, prohibiting the signing of a high school player will be re-adopted, with the change just mentioned."

People actually no longer have the enthusiasm for fights that prevailed in the eras of great champions. The bottom has dropped out due to the lack of class of the champions and the commanders and because of television.

Hammered For Five
Runs In Ninth Inning

Teamsters turned on former pitching mate Tony Tuscano for five runs in the ninth inning Wednesday night at Gaston park to nip the city softball all-stars 7-6 before more than 800.

The Teamsters could muster only three hits in six innings from all-star moundsmen Paiano and Groen, but readily smote Tuscano for six hits and five runs in his last stay.

Copple's triple and single and Hawkins' two hits were half the all-stars' safe-blow production. Mooney, Pace and pitcher Embrosky contributed six of the nine Teamster safeties, and it was Pace whose circuit drive and double ignited Teamster rallies.

Mooney also chipped in with a Teamster triple and Jacobs with an all-star double.

Chris Demos started on the mound for the Teamsters, but was lifted after five innings in which he allowed only four hits and two runs.

Embroski, who picked up the win, was touched for four hits and four runs in his four-inning duty. Score by innings: R. H. E. Louis-Savold
Fight TonightFormer Champion
Is Made Favorite

By JOHN BARRINGTON

NEW YORK, June 13.—Balding Joe Louis and battered Lee Savold lend their vintage pugilistic talents tonight at New York's Polo grounds to boxing's newest experiment—controlled theater television.

Artistically, the scheduled 15-round fight between the 37-year-old once-great Louis and the 35-year-old Savold offers nothing more illuminating than a comparison of retrograde reflexes.

It will be Louis' first New York appearance since he was man-handled by Ezzard Charles last September. Old Joe, shuffling doggedly toward another coveted shot at Charles, insists he is in far better condition now.

Joe will be a 3 to 1 favorite over his blond opponent—who couldn't even make Louis' celebrated "Bum of the Month" club when the latter was champion.

Savold—at various times in his career a carnival fighter, blacksmith and bartender—enters the ring tonight as Britain's version of world titleholder, but his ersatz laurels are not at stake.

Lee's British sponsors have decreed that he can risk his crown only in Britain.

It will be Savold's first fight in over a year. He last kayoed Bruce Woodcock on June 6, 1950.

Volant, St. Lucy
And New Wilmington
At Home Tonight

Volant, St. Lucy and New Wilmington are at home tonight in the North County Baseball League. Volant takes on East Brook, St. Lucy is host to Pulaski and New Wilmington will meet the Eden-Hillers.

East Brook owns three wins over Volant to date, while Pulaski leads in the St. Lucy series 2-1 and New Wilmington owns three straight over the Hillers.

League Shorts

Bob Siatek of East Brook continues to hold the No. 1 spot in league batting with a .415 mark, followed by George Ratvasky of New Wilmington and Ivan Young of Volant with .392. . . . Tricolor saved the day for the Eden-Hillers Monday night when he dove for and snagged a line drive and doubled the runner off first to end the game. At the time, the Hillers were leading 4-3, but Volant had runners on first and third with only one out. . . . Eleven games in the league have been settled by one run so far this season. . . . Five have gone into extra innings and five have been decided in the seventh frame.

New Wilmington
Downs Volant

New Wilmington defeated Volant 15-3 Tuesday evening at New Wilmington in the playoff of the postponed game of June 4, in the North County League.

The league leading College Towners scored six runs in the fifth and sixth innings to break the ball game wide open.

Kuhn went the distance for New Wilmington, racking up his third win without a loss. Todd Wilkin started for Volant and suffered his fifth setback.

Don Meyers had three hits in three trips for the winners. George Ratvasky, Dick Borowicz, Norb Borowicz and Kuhn had two hits apiece. George Ratvasky batted in four runs.

Ivan Young and Fyffe had two hits each for Volant, while Crocker batted in two of the Volant runs.

R. H. E. New Wilmington . . . 15 14 4 Batteries: Volant: Wilkin, Young (5) and Wright; New Wilmington: Kuhn and Meyers.

Jersey Joe Walcott will be remembered everlastingly as the most successful failure in the history of the heavyweight division.

New Castle-Ellwood
Legion Game Tonight
At Washington Field

New Castle Legion will meet the Ellwood City Legion tonight at George Washington junior high school field at 6 o'clock in a County Legion league game.

Both teams have 1-0 records, not counting a forfeit that New Castle picked up over the Ellwood team last week. That game may be replayed, it is reported.

The White Sox are being hailed as the hottest thing since the Chicago fire.

Biondis Win Fourth
In Legion League

Biondis won their fourth straight game in the American Legion junior baseball league Monday evening by defeating St. Mary's, 14-5, at Patton field.

Fazzone was the winning pitcher, Quinn the loser. Cammino paced the winners with two triples and a double. Krueger was leading hitter for St. Mary's.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Biondis . . . 540 320—14 10 0 St. Mary's . . . 000 000 5—5 5 2 Batteries: Biondis, Fazzone and Cammino; St. Mary's, Quinn and Miallo.

Proposes Use Tax For State

Would Provide More Funds For Highways

By BEATTY H. DIMIT
Master Pennsylvania State Grange
(Written Especially for I. N. S.)

INDIANA, Pa., June 13.—More money is needed to construct and maintain Pennsylvania highways and roads.

Is this not the proper time for Pennsylvania to adopt a use tax? This tax together with current taxes would insure the levying of a proportionate share of the cost of the highways on various classes of users.

It would insure adequate revenue to construct and maintain the roads and streets which are required by the character and volume of traffic which they must bear.

"Use" related to the annual cost of construction, depreciation and maintenance provides a sound and lasting principle of taxation.

Sound Principle
Truckers in Oregon, where the law has been in operation since 1933, agree that the principle of the use tax is sound and equitable because it is levied on the basis of use.

Those who use the roads less pay a lower tax and those who haul smaller loads pay a lower tax per mile traveled.

The opponents of the use tax always emphasize the difficulties and cost of administration.

The actual cost of administering the tax in Oregon was only 4.4 per cent in 1950.

It is administered and enforced by the Oregon Public Utilities Commission with the assistance of the state police.

The Public Utilities Commission controls all commercial vehicles with few exceptions. Exempt from the law are farm trucks (but not farm co-ops), taxis, and buses operating within three miles of a city limit, school buses, mail trucks, certain private light carriers, tow trucks, hearses and ambulances.

Authorities report that practically none escaped paying under the tax and that virtually no revenue is lost through improper returns.

In Oregon, the tax starts at one mill per mile for weights below 6,000 pounds and up to 15 mills for 46,000 pound loads when the vehicle is gasoline propelled.

Weight scales are located at strategic points throughout the state and are operated on a regular basis and when necessary, around the clock.

Fraudulent returns are rare since a stiff penalty is imposed for each fraudulent report or failure to report.

Now is the time for Pennsylvania to consider adoption of such a tax—a vital issue to every citizen.

Results Of Recent Atomic Tests In Excess Of Expectation

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(INS)—Chairman McMahon (D) Conn., of the senate-house atomic committee said today that results of the recent Eniwetok atomic tests were "in some respects in excess of the theoretical expectations". The senator's comment was interpreted as a hint that the tests brought the nation closer to a successful hydrogen bomb than responsible scientists had expected.

McMahon declined to elaborate on his statement, made after Dr. Alvin C. Graves, technical director of the tests which were completed last month, and other witnesses testified at a closed-door meeting. The senator also told reporters that there was good coordination of tests involving "different types of weapons peculiar to the three services"—the army, navy and air force. Newsmen took this as a hint that atomic torpedoes may have been tested for the navy and atomic "artillery" for the army.
